North Carolina. The proclamation of the Governor of North Carolina calling upon the people of that State to pay no heed to the demand of the Cenfederate agent for arms, looks as if the news of a collison between the State and Confederate authorities which we published and discredited the other day, has some foundation in fact. Here it is, and it certainly isn't cordial in feeling to the Confed-

loyal to treason :

eracy, and it don't say much that sounds

row, purchase, ar d if necessary, to impress, all the arms now in the bands of private citizens.

Any attempt to seize the arms of our citzens is directly at variance with the constitution, and in opposition to the declared policy of the Government, which make it the duty of every citizen to keep and bear arms, and protects the arms of the militia even from execution for debt.

But while I notify you that these agents have no lawful authority to seize your provate arms, and you will be protected in preserving the means of self-defene, I resjoin upon you in this emergency, as an act of the highest patriotism and duty, that you should discover to the proper State anthorities all public arms, maskets or rifles, within your knowledge, and sell to the State all the arms, the property of individuals, which can be spared.

The Colonels of the several regiments of militia will act as agents for the State and will notify me whenever any such arms are delivered or offered to them. Their prompt and earnest attention is called in the execution of this order.

HENRY T. CLARK. April 18, '62. Governor ex-officio. The First Indiana Caval y. Except by occasional and detached notices the people of our State bave heard little of the 1st Cavalry Regiment, Col. Baker, which has been for nearly a year in active. constant service. A correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat gives the following sketch of its career: Among the regiments which have thus far labored well, and done a noble and valuable work, without even the meed of newspaper celebrity, I count prominent the First Indiana Regiment of Cavalry. This regiment entered the service in July last, and since August has been engaged in a very effectual mission among the secesh in South-east Missouri, Tuey have for the most of the time been engaged in scouring the country about and south of Ironton, traversing nearly the whole country in that interesting region, taking hundreds of prisoners, and "converting" many rebels and their property. As the best tribute to their services, I append a brief summary of the actual skirmishes in which they have been engaged since they entered upon the campaign of Missouri:

About the middle of September there was a skirmish at Talbot's camp on Black River, resulting in the capture of a large number of horses and some arms.

On the 17th of October there was a skirmish at St. Francis river, resulting in EXTER SUGSE CUREB BASES.

Two wounded and a loss of four or five killed on the rebel side. On the 28th of October, at the battle of Fredericktown, the regiment charged down a road defended on either side by infantry and cavalry and commanded by a powerful battery, taking the battery, and, in concert with the other flanking forces of intantry, putting the enemy to a basty and inglorious flight. In this charge four were killed, among them the brave Major Gavitt and Capt. Hindman; four mortally wounded, and twenty-eight wounded, who recovered. In this battle the rebels left upon the field 314 BOAST RYE AND BARDEY ready for use.

mishes, and their succession, show how constantly and eff-ctively they have been engaged. Meanwhile the health of the regiment has been remarkable, and reflects great crelit upon the Surgeons. In the course of the whole campaign there have been but eight deaths from disease, four of these dying in the absence of the medical officers on detached duty. Fifty-two have been discharged from disability, and the larges' number unfit for service at any one time has been sixteen. Col. Baker, like Col. Hovey, left all the attractions and promises of a professional life, and an important and inviting political position to serve the one great cause of the nation .-His success and skill have shown him to be worthy to be Colonel of such a regiment as he commands, and have secured for him the position of an Acting Brigadier General. The men whom he commands are such as it does one good to meet any-where, and most of all, in camp. It is the highest praise to both officers and men to say that the Colonel has good cause for pride in his men, and the soldiers feel hon-
